The Coalition for a Sustainable Africa
presents two poignant documentaries for the pan African film festival

Left Behind* and *Baba Mandela

followed by a panel discussion on the Future of Sub-Saharan Africa
With an after-Party at Fais Do Do

Sunday, February 18, 2007

Through the eyes and voices of Kenya's street kids, prostitutes, gang leaders, and slum dwellers living with HIV/AIDS, Left Behind explores the impact of the pandemic's most innocent victims: children.

Baba Mandela is a 55-minute film by AMREF (African Medical and Research Foundation).

Kevin Kariuki is a 10-year old boy from Kibera, East Africa's largest slum. As he narrates his experience, Kevin also meets some people who are trying to reverse the cycle of poor health and environment damage. Kevin's experience is crystallized into a letter that he writes to Mandela. Baba Mandela will take you through the Nairobi slums, rural Kibwezi, Mt. Kenya, Lake Victoria and through the burning issues affecting Kenya in just 50 minutes. www.amref.org
